

Chapter 26
ROBERT BRUCE

"If the spider has courage to try again, I also will try again to free Scotland!"

Facts to Learn and Recite

Robert Bruce – the most famous king Scotland ever had, won Scotland's independence from England in 1328.

Edward I – king of England who also claimed the throne of Scotland.

Sir William Wallace – Scottish knight who led an uprising against Edward I but was defeated and killed.

Edward II – king of England defeated by the Scots and run out of Scotland but refused to give up his claim to the Scottish crown.

Edward III – king of England who recognized Scotland's independence in 1328.